Professional Liability

Insured faces lawsuit alleging taxes were improperly filed and therefore the insured's client incurred fines and penalties.

Cyber Liability

Insured's computer was hacked, resulting in lawsuit over stolen client data.

Crisis Management Expenses

The insured gets adverse press for providing questionable tax shelters, which are later deemed illegal by the IRS.

Appearance at Proceedings

Insured who has to attend a trial after being sued still gets reimbursed for lost earnings.

Disciplinary Proceedings

Insured who has to appear before a disciplinary board is reimbursed for legal fees and expenses.

Subpoena Assistance

Costs related to complying with subpoenas, such as gathering documents or preparing for a deposition, are reimbursed.

Social Engineering

An insured receives a phishing email and mistakenly transfers client's money to a fraudulent account. The client demands reimbursement for his or her loss of funds.
